Long-term Sub for Part-Time Music Teacher

If you are

- A creative, outside-of-the-box thinker
- A proponent of whole child education (physical, intellectual and emotional development)
- Flexible and open
- Collaborative in your approach to leading
- A kind, compassionate, mindful and inclusive individual

Then this is the opportunity for you.

Summit Schools is Cedar Rapids' only non-religious, independent PreKindergarten-8th grade school. We are seeking a part-time, dynamic, enthusiastic music educator to introduce and share the love of music in all forms with our community. We are deeply invested in the social, emotional, physical, and intellectual growth of all students, and are looking for a music educator who is excited about working as part of a team with other talented educators as well as partnering with caregivers and communicating compassionately and regularly.

Preferred qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education or Music Education (strongly preferred)
- Iowa Teaching Certification with an endorsement in Music Education required (strongly preferred)
- Experience in a progressive learning program that integrates the arts and sciences and cultivates the whole child is encouraged
- Experience as a practicing musician or artist preferred
- High energy, positive, "can-do" attitude, flexibility, teamwork, attention to detail, and a high degree of personal initiative are essential.

Salary: $19.28/hour; $135/day. Prefer to keep established music instruction days on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m., but could be flexible. Position is open in January 2023.

To apply, please email Head of School Paul Pressler: paul.pressler@summitschools.org.
