Summit Schools: Part-Time World Language Teacher

If you are

- A creative, outside-of-the-box thinker
- A proponent of whole child education (physical, intellectual and emotional development)
- Flexible and open
- Collaborative in your approach to leading
- A kind, compassionate, mindful and inclusive individual

Then this is the opportunity for you.

Summit Schools is Cedar Rapids' only independent PreKindergarten-8th grade school. We are seeking a part-time World Language Teacher (preferably with a Spanish Language background, but open to other world languages) to join our dynamic staff for the upcoming 2024-25 academic year.

Preferred qualifications: You are an ideal candidate if you are enthusiastic, reflective, mature, emotionally intelligent, responsible, warm, creative, and energetic. A Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education or a foreign language is strongly preferred. A World Language Endorsement and an Iowa Teaching License are strongly preferred. Experience as an educator in a progressive education program that integrates the arts and sciences and cultivates the whole child is encouraged. High-energy, positive, "can-do" attitude, flexibility, teamwork, attention to detail, and a high degree of personal initiative are essential. Salary commensurate with experience/qualifications.
